Those who are unfit for military duty are to be set to work on the abandoned plantations, and the black troops will be need largely to protect the navigation and commerce of the river, to fight ander white officers against guerrillas, and to protect themselves and their own fields and crops from the depredations of the enemy.

At Memphis Gen. Thomas anthorized the organization of light batteries of artilleriate of black men, and will have the fortifications at this post manned by them. This afternoon the whole army at this place was called out to bear Gen. Thomas set forth this new policy of the Government. Seven thousand soldiers were present at the meeting at Fort Curtis, and received the announcement with great satisfaction and applause. Gen. Thomas also inculcated kindness and humanity to the blacks, and aid they were capable of making good soldiers.

He said he was brought up in the South, among slaves, but he was now in favor of treating them as free men and entitled to the rights of men. He informed the officers of the army that no one would be permitted to oppose or in any way interfere with

The Old New-York Municipal Police Force- Becision Against Paying Them.

The Court of Appeals adjourned this afternoon. The Court gave their opinion to-day in the long pending suit of the policemen of New-York who, under Fernando Wood, refused to recognize the authority of the Police Commissioners appointed under the Metropolitan Police law. The Court, by virtue of the repeal by the law of 1860 of the law of 1857, were unanimous is their decision on one point against those policemen. A majority of the Court gave a decision denying the policemen the pay that they sued for while seting is an insuborninate manner, and compelling them to pay the costs of suits. This decision ends the long controversy by decision of the Court of last resort in the State, and establishes the constitutionalty of the Metropolitan Police law.
